

Assignment 2 – Exploring Virtual Laptop

Directions: As you use Virtual Laptop to practice installing components, answer the following questions.

Many of the questions can be discovered by looking closer at the components before installation.

Questions	Answers
Underside Layer	Complete the layer installations
1. What type of battery is commonly used in today's laptops	(Look at the TOP view of the battery under the recycling symbol)? Li-ion Battery
2. Is it possible to install the laptop RAM backwards?	No
3. Why or why not?	The ram insertion key has a specific place to fit it in.
4. How is the replacement of RAM in a laptop different from a desktop?	The RAM in a laptop sits horizontally while in a desktop it is installed vertically
5. What type of legacy HDD is used in this virtual machine?	SATA internal drive
Top & Sides Layer	Complete the layer installations
6. What type of device is available for the PC card slot?	Express Card
7. Is the connection for the docking station standard or proprietary?	Yes
Docking Station Layer	Complete the layer installations
8. How is the laptop connected to the dock?	The laptop sits on top of the docking station
External Cables Layer	Complete the layer installations
9. What type of network cable was connected to the dock?	Ethernet cable
10. What type of monitor cable was connected to the dock?	Video Graphic Array

11. Which video connector(s) isn't connected to the dock?	Digital Visual Interface cable
12. Which modern video connectors aren't available at all for this docking station?	BNC connectors
13. What type of legacy keyboard & mouse connector is used on the docking station?	PS/2 Connector or 6pin Mini-DIN
14. Which type of modern USB connection is this docking station missing?	High Definition Multimedia Interface
15. How do you physically secure a laptop to the docking station?	You place the laptop on top of the docking station and secure the laptop
Explore Section	Explore this section
16. What status indicators are on the top of the laptop?	Bluetooth	Battery	Stand-by