MON
	I woke up early before my class sessions began to prepare myself for the day. I attended my first class applications development practice which usually take place in the Morning, this term in this module we are taught of application security implementation.
TUES	This day I woke up and got ready to start my school work, as I don't have any classes I checked on work done on previous day to finish it up and listen again to recordings
	I go through my application development theory recoding to check if am still in line with what need to be done.
WED	Today is the day that I go through my project presentation notes and recordings. This day is good for me and I chose it to look over my project presentation work.
	Then in the afternoon I attended project 3 meeting where we met as group members to discuss our progress and tasks to be done.
THUR	I woke up and prepared myself for my project presentation class session, we met we the lecture and our lecture gave us work later on I attended a meeting
FRI	This day I have a meeting with my supervisor and my group members, here the lecture clarifies and ensures whether we understand what need to be done,
	Also I had a project presentation meeting where we met with the client.
